

Credit Card Analytics Report

1. Overview

This report provides a comprehensive analysis of credit card transactions, revenue generation, and customer segmentation. The objective is to identify key trends, high-performing segments, and actionable business insights.

2. Key Performance Indicators (KPIs)

- Total Revenue: 55.32M
 - Total Transaction Amount: 45M
 - Total Interest Earned: 7.84M
 - Total Transaction Count: 656K
 - Customer Satisfaction Score (CSS): 3.19
-

3. Revenue Analysis

3.1 Quarterly Performance

- Q3 generated the highest revenue (~14.2M)
- Q2 and Q1 remained stable around 13–14M
- Slight dip observed in Q4

3.2 Revenue by Expenditure Type

- Bills contribute the highest revenue (~14M)
- Entertainment, Fuel, and Grocery follow closely
- Travel contributes the least (~6M)

3.3 Revenue by Card Type

- Blue Card: 46M (dominates overall revenue)
- Silver Card: 5.5M
- Gold Card: 2.4M
- Platinum Card: 1.1M

Insight: Blue cards contribute more than 80% of total revenue.

3.4 Revenue by Usage Mode

- Swipe: 35M
- Chip: 17M
- Online: 3M

Insight: Swipe transactions dominate usage behavior.

4. Customer Segmentation

4.1 Revenue by Education Level

- Graduates contribute the highest revenue (~22M)
- High school and unknown segments follow
- Doctorate contributes the least

4.2 Revenue by Job Type

- Business owners generate the highest revenue (~17M)
- White-collar employees are second
- Retirees contribute the least

4.3 Revenue by Income Group

- High-income group contributes the most
 - Medium and low-income groups show moderate contribution
-

5. Demographic Analysis

5.1 Revenue by Gender

- Female: ~30.22M
- Male: ~25.09M

Insight: Female customers contribute slightly more revenue.

5.2 Revenue by Age Group

- 40–50 age group generates the highest revenue
- 60+ and 30–40 groups follow
- 20–30 contributes the least

5.3 Revenue by Marital Status

- Married customers contribute significantly
- Single customers also show strong participation

5.4 Revenue by Dependents

- Customers with 2 dependents show higher contribution
-

6. Geographic Insights

Top Performing States

- Texas (TX)
 - New York (NY)
 - California (CA)
 - Florida (FL)
 - New Jersey (NJ)
-

7. Risk & Delinquency Analysis

- Total Delinquent Customers: 614
- Estimated Total Customers: 10,108
- Delinquency Rate: ~6.07%

Insight: Around 6% of customers are delinquent, indicating moderate credit risk. This segment should be closely monitored and targeted with recovery and risk-control strategies.

8. Key Insights

- Blue card is the primary revenue driver
 - Swipe transactions are the most used mode
 - High-income and graduate customers contribute most revenue
 - Middle-aged customers (40–50) are most valuable
 - Female customers slightly outperform male customers
-

9. Recommendations

- Focus marketing on Blue card segment
 - Encourage digital (online) transactions for future growth
 - Target high-income and business customers
 - Provide offers to increase usage in low-performing segments
 - Monitor delinquent customers to reduce risk
-

10. Conclusion

This dashboard highlights strong revenue concentration in specific customer segments and card types. With targeted strategies, the business can improve growth, customer engagement, and risk management.
